

SHASHIDHAR PAB

IBMI8005

Online shopping system

These are the online software where customers used to buy products of their wish. Developer or admin has account to add products to the database. This makes it reliable to order items.

This system will be used by 3 people.
Admin customer web user.

* Admin: These are the people who add products to the database so that user can purchase with valid details and information. They can add products of any category. Listed within category. They can help user order to shipped in less days.

* Customer: These are users who used to buy products. They are authentic with different names. Only valid users can place orders. There are many modes of payment where people can pay. They can track order and make cancellations with ease.

* Web user: These are users who just use website to view products, compare, check etc.

Min